

Course Description – Curriculum 2013

Subject: IS418 Decision Support and Business Intelligence System

Credits: 3

Prerequisite: IS201

Description: Study processes, techniques, and models of decision making for every level of organization. The course will cover the structure of decision support system, and business intelligence techniques that support the effectiveness in decision making and competitive advantage in the organization.