

Course Description – Curriculum 2013

Subject: MK321 Sales Promotion and Event Marketing

Credits: 3

Prerequisite: MK311

Description: A study of concepts, principles, and tools of sales promotion and event marketing. Topics include planning and developing an effective strategy by using situation analysis and goal setting, while integrating creative tools and appropriate media with other elements of the marketing mix. The course finishes with testing and evaluation of the operation.