

Dear BBA students and incoming exchange students,

BBA International Program kindly requests your cooperation to improve the image of the BBA International Program and Thammasat Business School by complying with the BBA dress code regulations as follows:

- On regular day (Monday – Friday) all BBA students, incoming exchange students and students from other faculties are required to wear the Thammasat students uniform to attend classes, regardless of class attendance being stipulated as a condition.
- On weekend (Saturday and Sunday) students are required to wear the dress code as follows:
 - ✓ BBA students are required to wear the university’s uniforms or BBA T-shirts (No other T-shirts, tank tops etc.) with long trousers or long pants (No shorts, hip-hop pants, etc.)
 - ✓ Incoming exchange students and students from other faculties students are required to wear the university’s uniforms or polite dress: shirts or T-shirts (No tank tops) with long trousers or long pants (No shorts, hip-hop pants, etc.) because they are not provided with the BBA T-shirts.
- On Exam Date, all BBA students, incoming exchange students and students from other faculties must wear the Thammasat students uniform and proper cut shoes (No flip-flops, slippers, sandals, etc.)
- BBA students participating in any university activities, such as orientations and field trips, are required to wear the Thammasat students uniform or BBA T-shirt or other dress code as per specified by the BBA program.
- Should BBA officers find out that the students do not dress properly as per required student dress code and discover that students exchange dress with friends, BBA International Program reserves the right to mark absence on that day.
- Wearing “(too) casual or impolite attire” is considered “violating the University’s dress code”, and the students have to face the consequences.
- The BBA Office reserves the right to provide no services to the BBA students violating the dress code policy.

Should you need more information, please contact BBA office.

Best,
BBA International Program
